Complaint and Racial Profiling Complaint Process

COMPLAINTS:

How to make a complaint: When a citizen has a complaint against a police department employee (sworn or civilian), the complaint is directed to the department's Chief of Police, located at 2412 FM 1516S, China Grove, Texas 78263. Office hours are 8:00 am to 3:00 pm, Monday through Thursday.

Texas law requires that all complaints against peace officers be in writing and signed by the person making the complaint. Complaints must be made within (30) days of the incident unless special circumstances exist. The person who was wronged must file the complaint on a prescribed form; other persons may give statements as witnesses.

Forms may be picked up at the office during regular business hours. Investigators will ensure that a thorough investigation of your complaint is conducted. Just as citizens who are arrested must be told the charges against them, a police employee must be given a copy of the complaint before any disciplinary action is taken. When the investigation is completed, you will be notified of the results and action taken.

FALSE COMPLAINTS:

Filing a false complaint against a police employee is a violation of the Texas Penal Code, Section 37.02. If a person knowingly and intentionally makes a false statement under oath, or swears to the truth of a false statement previously made under oath, a person may be found guilty and punished by a fine up to $4,000.00, confinement in jail up to one year or both fine and confinement.

The China Grove Police Department does not investigate the issuance of citations or arrests unless some form of misconduct is alleged. If you received a citation or were arrested and disagree with the charge, you must address this issue in court.

PERSONNEL COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Please review the information provided on the next two pages.

1. Complete the attached Personnel Complaint Affidavit form. You will need to provide a written statement of the events about which you wish to file a complaint. Please be as detailed as possible. If you need additional space, you may make a copy of the third page or attach a separate piece of paper.
2. All pages of the complaint form must be sworn to before a notary with notary seal attached.
3. The original complaint form may be returned to the City of China Grove in person or by mail.
4. Once received by the Chief of Police, the complaint will be assigned to the appropriate individual for investigation. This individual will contact you within (10) business days. There may be a need for additional information, clarification of points in your statement, or other need based on the individual circumstances of your complaint.
5. Once the investigation is completed, it is submitted to the chief of police for review.
6. You will be informed of the disposition by the chief's office.
7. If you have any questions during the process, please call the individual assigned to the complaint or the city office.

TEXAS STATE LAW REQUIREMENTS

Texas State Law requires that all complaints against police officers must be in writing and signed by the person making the complaint. Just as citizens who are arrested must be notified of the charges against them, the police officer must be given a copy of the complaint before any disciplinary action may be taken. Complaints must be made by the person aggrieved. Other persons may give statements as witnesses.

Complaints should be submitted in person or by mail to:
